SILVER CHAIN ANNOUNCED WINNER OF THE AUSTRALIAN BUSINESS AWARD FOR COMMUNITY CONTRIBUTION

Silver Chain has been announced as winner of the 2010 Australian Business Award for Community Contribution.

The Australian Business Awards received a total of 1849 separate entries from 962 organisations and Mr Chris McGowan, Silver Chain Chief Executive Officer says he is delighted that Silver Chain was selected to receive this acknowledgment.

“The Community Contribution Award acknowledges organisations which implement policies or projects that positively impact on the community and generate outcomes that have a long term benefit,” says Mr McGowan.

“As a Western Australian organisation, it is very rewarding to be nationally recognised for our contribution to the community as Silver Chain strives to provide high quality health care services and seeks to increase the community’s capacity to maximize its health and wellbeing.

“We are delighted to share the Award with Royal District Nursing Service and of course extend our congratulations to them and to all participants and Award recipients,” concluded Mr McGowan.

The Australian Business Awards is a national program honouring organisations which demonstrate the core values of business excellence, product excellence, sustainability and commercial success in their respective industries through an established series of business and product award categories.

The Awards are open to all Australian companies and organisations including multi-national subsidiaries, government departments, agencies or bodies, franchisors and non-government organisations.
